Minutes:

Description of the Budget:
Words: Fashion, design, clothing. Remy; recent experience on Celtics gear, what was the best fit, and impact on the clothes.
Questions from the Committee:	Responses from the Presenter:
1. Is it accessible to everyone?	1. Yes, this will be. Through a private Zoom link. Through an RSVP.
2. How does this honoraria benefit this club's experience?	2. His experience being a gm. He can tell the students how different choices are made to create these uniforms.
3. Why did you choose this speaker?	3. He provides valuable input on the impact and process involved with designing the clothes. The GM had a lot of experience determining design and teach how people can express themselves.
4. Has anything been for yet?	4. Nothing has been paid for
5. How are they going to advertise for this event?	5. Using social media platforms and tally up the people that come through
6. How are they going to pay for the portion UPAC does not fund?	6. Joint funding and donations
7. Why did you prefer zoom over in-person?	7. COVID precautions

8. Where is the event?	8. Zoom
9. Does he provide any other input besides fashion?	9. A hybrid role, he has to focus on networking. He needs to have a basic hands-on view with the apparel. He can give insight on networking. The main focus will be on selling the brand.
10. Where is the quote coming from? (Lack of honoraria guest)	10. They will get another invoice.
11. Is event open to everyone? (Form said no)	11. Typo

Committee Discussion:

- No complaints, thinks connecting the apparel and sports management to the club is a helpful event. Approves.
- Their mission statement does emphasize the relation to the event. The speaker is relevant to the club's mission itself. Approves.
