2. How will you pay for anything UPAC does not fund?	2. Co-sponsors with other cubs, college of education, and liberal arts
3. Why did you choose this Honoraria?	3. Went through American program borough, organized transportation, speaker, so that was the inform we got from them.
4. How do you plan to advertise (UPAC Logo)?	4. Social media, posters in hub, flyers, club meetings.
5. How did you come up with your potential attendance?	5. It's based off the amounts the year they had before virtually, the group has also grown and the foot traffic at their events has increased.
6. Is this event open to all UP students?	6. Yes

7. Have you ever hosted an event like this before?	7. Haven't had one like this in person but have done other events, reentering simulation and they have had people who have managed events this size before.
8. How does honoraria's work align with your organization's mission?	8. Org shifting to what systems cause harm in the first place. Her work is focused on transformative justice and ow to change the systems to strengthen the system.
9. How big of an audience at event?	9. 200-250
10. Do you need to pre-register for event?	10. Virtual pre-register. in-person just show up
11.	11.

Committee Discussion:
SCT: Pretty straight forward budget. It is good for the org and open to everyone. I'm in favor of it.
CM1: I say it perfectly aligns with what the organization stands for and it's a good speaker for their cause.
CM2: Them being open to everyone is a good thing. It is a unique topic to discuss and bring up.

Minutes Taker(s):	Cassandra, Karthik
SCT Member(s):	Fiona, Sam L

Organization Presenter:	Nick Cerminara
Presenter's Email:	Njc5668@psu.edu

Minutes:

Description of the Budget:
Each year, the Penn State Horticulture Club selects a team of students from the club and travels to a different university to compete in various landscape and plant science-related events. This year, the competition will be held March 15-18, 2023 at Mississippi State University in Starkville, MS. Penn State has been competing in this competition for over 23 years. The Penn State Horticulture Club will be sending twenty-seven (27) students as our competition team to participate in 31 different events.
Questions from the Committee:	Responses from the Presenter:
1. Have you paid for anything yet?	1. Deposit on the hotel
2. How does this travel experience enhance the out of classroom experience here at Penn State?	2. Most of the students on the trip are interested in the subjects. There is almost a career fair and workshops that the students can sign up for based on their interests. Can also compete in shows
3. Have your priorities for funding changed?	3. No (Subject to change, one thing that can change is the registration fee)
4. How do you plan on sharing the knowledge that you have learned through the event with the Penn State community?	4. Representing school at event with chant. A lot of people want to go to event once they see returning students' experiences
5. What is the primary purpose of this travel experience? If	5. The ability to work with teammates and learning to collaborate. Using stuff

networking was not a part of this experience, would you still attend?	learned in the classrooms in real life. Would still attend event if networking was not a part
6. How were the students chosen for this event?	6. Volunteer basis and based on the capacity of the bus. They thought more people would attend but only picked students based on commitment.
7. How do you plan on paying the portion that UPAC won't cover?	7. Horticulture sales, fundraising through other companies (on T-shirts), donations
8.	8.
9.	9.
10.	10.

Committee Discussion:
SCT: They seem passionate, and they have done this before, and they have been looking forward to doing this all year and it would be a great budget to fund.
CM 1: They have been here for 23 years. It might be a challenging experience, but they seem like they know what they are doing and they are looking forward to the experience.
CM 2: I wasn't convinced at first, but he showed his passion through the primary purpose question.
